nota bene: DCCA SUPPORTS RESTORATION OF FUNDING FOR FILLMORE ARTS CENTER

The District of Columbia Public Schools has stunned the communities of five high-achieving DC public elementary schools by drastically cutting funding to their shared Fillmore Arts Center programs, causing students to lose their high-quality arts education. The Dupont Circle Citizens Association urges Chancellor Henderson to rescind this budget cut, and promise all of the affected schools—Key, Ross, Marie Reed, Hyde-Addison and Stoddert—that Fillmore will continue its excellent public service. To read DCCA's letter to Chancellor Henderson, visit our website: www.dupont-circle.org. For more details, to read and sign the Friends of Fillmore Art Center petition—750+ signatures and comments as of Sunday evening, February 28th—and to get involved, visit: <http://friendsoffillmore.org/>. DCCA will provide an update at its monthly meeting on March 7 (see below).

DCCA MONTHLY MEMBERSHIP MEETING

Update on 16th Street Bus Planning Study

DDOT staff member Megan Kanagy will bring us up-to-date on the planning for improved bus and car transit on 16th Street and the impact of potential changes on our neighborhood. Upon learning that ANC2B would entertain a resolution from its

Transportation and Public Infrastructure Committee in favor of the recommended alternative as proposed by DDOT, DCCA sent a letter to the ANC outlining problems with the plan. (To read DCCA's letter go to: www.dupont-circle.org/resources/Documents/DC CA%20Letter%20to%20ANC2B.pdf)

After hearing at its February 10 meeting from the Dupont Circle Conservancy's Rick Busch, DCCA and others, ANC2B unanimously passed immediate past chair Noah Smith's resolution to continue following the project—with special consideration of impacts on the walkability, safety and sustainability of the Dupont Circle neighborhood, as well as on the historic viewshed south to the White House—as it enters the design phase.

KEEGAN THEATRE: AMERICAN IDIOT

WHEN: March 12 – April 9

WHERE: 1742 Church Street NW

The two-time Tony® Award-winning hit musical AMERICAN IDIOT tells the story of three lifelong friends, forced to choose between their dreams and the safety of suburbia. Their quest for true meaning in a post

9/11 world leads them on a journey of self-discovery, heartache, and revelation. Based on Green Day's GRAMMY® Award-winning multi-platinum album, AMERICAN IDIOT boldly takes the American musical where it's never gone before. To helm this exhilarating rock musical, Keegan has reunited the creative team from 2014's Helen Hayes nominated production of HAIR. Mark A. Rhea and Susan Marie Rhea direct. Jake Null music directs.

Rachel Leigh Dolan choreographs.
